

Dear Casey

I was so good to be able to visit with Jeanette on Fri. esp. after all the nice stuff they call discovery came on I really don't know how they can get away with sharing all of your private mail with the public. I don't care that the Sheriff's office reads them but when in the Constitution doesn't state that the public has a right to read letters sent thru the US postal service. And to print out all senders information. Its bad enough peoples private thoughts are now public but also their addresses & signatures. TALK about giving the cons in the world everyones name on a silver plate. Identity fraud is so easy anyway these days you no one has anyway to fight back going out peoples signatures to copy, cut & paste How stupid! I certainly hope enough people will contact an atty & file a class action lawsuit against the prosecution office. We may as well live in a Communist Country we have no fight anymore.
 I saw the other day a group of atheist want to remove under God from the pledge of allegiance. I bet those some people have no problem spending money on excepting money with in God no trust on it! Its time to put a stop to all of this nonsense and fight for all our rights. Taking God out of the equation is what is fundamentally wrong with this nation these days. When people remove

God in their lives then it allows all the negative, hatredfulness of people to come out. Even if people choose not to believe in God they should at least have some ~~idea~~ of Humanity in their life. Instead people have become so far removed from being a compassionate neighbor, being to a cold and bitter being. People tend to gravitate to the "It's not my problem" attitude or "I'm better than that attitude." Look at what happens to people when they do something good — they are questioned for their motivation and treated as if it's not the normal or right thing to do. I guess I am still very wired about people doing the right thing because it's the right thing to do. No motive.
Humans were given the ability to love, reason and make choices. When did it get so that the right choices are now ridiculed.

Humanity is one man's compassion for another.
So no humanity, no God — no wonder. The devil is making havoc, only the weak minded give up and give into his lies and deception. The strong in heart and spirit will stand up and boldly seek a higher power. Father God I pray to you right now that, may your blessings fall upon those who continue to seek you and your ways, and that your mercy and grace abound down to those of us who have the courage to look. The devil straight into his eyes and say you have no power against me because I am God's child and Jesus is my Savior.
The Lord has taken you down, once and he will take you down again. Thank you Father God for 23330

Your strength and courage and for never leaving me. You are the one who is in total control. For this I thank you in the name of your son, Jesus Christ this I pray. Amen.

Casey Stay Strong and don't let all these nonsense get you stressed. James told me about Gast there.
I'm glad you are reporting them now. I hope at some point Joe can achieve what he needs to to get you to see someone soon.

I don't know if James told you about the water pipe that broke on Fri. We had water from the pipe outside Casey's room leak into her room mostly into her play corner. - Carpet was soaked and walls were damp. Everything is drying out but the carpet smells bad. (I better watch how I describe it they may come take it as discovering!

It's amazing how nice clean water can smell rancid after it sits for a while!

Fortunately one of our church friends was able to come out and fix the broken pipe. I hated it was Casey's room but at least nothing was ruined.

I want to see gma & pa on Tues and I plan on seeing them again tomorrow. They are both doing well and ask about you. Dad drove to the airport last week to see your other grandparents, and I'm sure he was there to.

We had dinner with the 5 real last night always goodly to hang with them. They went to High East with each for a race and air show. Jerry & Todd took them.
So we turtled Sat for Lam. He is huge. Reminds me how fast Rocky goes. Wasn't going to tell you but Tinker is not doing so well she has been sick off & on for about a month. 1st it was vomiting and diarrhea then its retention of water. I hate her on a diarrhea and she seems to be doing some better.
I don't want to worry you but its like when Penny died. Its so hard to imagine them being gone esp since they were Caipier's pets too.

I am proud of myself. I finally took Cary's potty chair out of my bathroom. Sounds crazy that it was in there for 2 yrs. Its just so hard to let go of something. We spent alot of time together in the mornings while I was getting ready for work. I can still see her.

Well enough before I cry. Don't worry about me sweetheart, I am too stubborn to get up even though it would be so easy - but can't get the devil win.
I have too much faith to let them steal my joy!

Love you always & Forever

Dear Casey,

You looked so beautiful last Thursday. Your hair is so long & pretty. As much as I hated being on the witness stand, I was grateful for the opportunity to look at your face for more than a brief moment. I know Dee felt the same way. Both he & I had missed you so much. I'm sorry that you have to continue to be put through all of this.

I have never given up on you. My faith in you and God has continued to grow everyday. I see your strength and commitment to fight for your freedom and for Caylee. When spring comes and your trial is over we will find her together. I continue to seek her and continue to have hope that we will all be reunited soon. I need you to continue to stay focused and strong. Don't let all of the games that the states atty's office and Mark Nijme or anyone else is playing get to you. In the end they will all have to face up to what they are doing. All their twisting of the truth and purposely leaving out statements or evidence will eventually bite them in the rear. I know that when the trial comes your team will blow all of their theories and lack of evidence up in their faces.

Side note Horace just crapped on the living room floor. I just saw him do it. I've been blaming the dog. What in the world has gotten into him? That's the 3rd time in the last wk.

I truly thought it was broken. Anyway your cat is so spoiled. He is getting old though.

He knows I'm mad at him now. He's sitting on the back of the recliner staring at me.

I'm sitting on the couch writing to you.

Well I have to tell you, your mother is still a little bit of a dare devil. We went to Tennessee 2 wks ago with Donna's family.
Her sister lives in Chattanooga. The mountains there are so beautiful. Anyway her house is on a hill and the driveway is extremely long & steep. Well there was this turtle ~~toy~~ riding toy and I had to try it out. needless to say it went fast and when I tried to stop I flew in the air and landed on my left hip and took ~~the~~ a chunk of skin off my right elbow.

Thank god I had pants on or I wouldn't have any meat on my thigh either. I ended up with a softball size lump and a football size bruise on my thigh.
Still hurts like a son of a gun. Still swollen & bruised. My elbow is finally starting to fill in. — Thus I wore a sweater on Thurs. to court so someone couldn't say anything about it. Little mess ~~watchy~~ pool from Ch. 9 would have concocted one of her stupid stories.

I heard Charley put her in her place the other day. I told her the same thing in Oct 2008.

Sorry my side notes are taking me to talking about crap. at least Horace's was funny and her's isn't.

I'm sorry this is short. I'm kinda tired. Hope you're feeling ok.

I love you and you are always in my thoughts and prayers.

Always and forever

Love mom.
